

To: roamalert@riccs.mwcog.org[roamalert@riccs.mwcog.org]
From: _LEW@riccs.mwcog.org
Sent: Fri 1/10/2014 1:31:48 PM
Subject: Elk River, WV Spill - Update #1

The Potomac watershed is not affected. The spill is limited to Elk River watershed in central and southern West Virginia. The contaminant of concern is 4-methyl cyclohexane methanol. West Virginia American Water is assessing the situation, conducting sampling and will begin flushing. NCRWARN will monitor the situation.

Sent by Steven Bieber to 3water_core via MWCOG RICCS